

Bulk Edit - Adjust Trade Time

With the "Bulk Edit" function, you can quickly adjust the trade time for several transactions at once.

Before making any major changes in your account we recommend creating a backup of your account.
You can create a backup here: cointracking.info/backup\_trades.php

1

Navigate to cointracking.info/enter\_coins.php

2

Click on "Bulk Edit/Delete"

Enter Coins

Enter here all your trades. You can either enter them manually or choose one of the exchange imports.
